FLOX still waits... A very special boy who was found in rough shape. Turned out he was a diabetic. He also had a problem with one of his eyes and unfortunately, it had to be removed but he is doing great! Presently he is on four units of insulin twice a day! It's very easy to give the shot and he does not mind at all. Please call the shelter for more information. Please consider this sweet guy if you are looking for a new pal!
